Dear Rachel

It is best you submit again on the 13-03 2020.
Before that day we cant not retrieve the documents from EPO.

The day we receive the new validation, we will also withdraw the payments on the new validation.

Dear Kristen,

Thank you very much for your prompt reply.

I have two questions:

1. Can we re-submit the translation on 11/03/2020, as this is the date of the decision to maintain?

2. As we have already submitted the translation once, and authorized for payment to be taken from our account accordingly, what is the best way to re-send validation without being charged twice?

Kind regards,

Rachel

Dear Rachel

We cannot receive it until it is published in epo.
We have not the option to retrieve the documents from EPO before end of the week (13/03 2020)
So you have to send a validation again .

Dear Sir or Madam,

We have just submitted the amended Danish translation for the above referenced case.

Please be informed that the date of the decision to maintain the patent will be 11 March 2020. Our client requested that we complete re-validation procedures before 12 March 2020, which is why we submitted this case so early.

I was able to upload the translation without an issue, but I wanted to confirm that uploading the translation before the date of the decision to maintain will not cause any problems.

Please could you let me know as soon as possible that everything is in order?

Many thanks in advance for your help.

Rachel
